Memories of Red Lion Inn

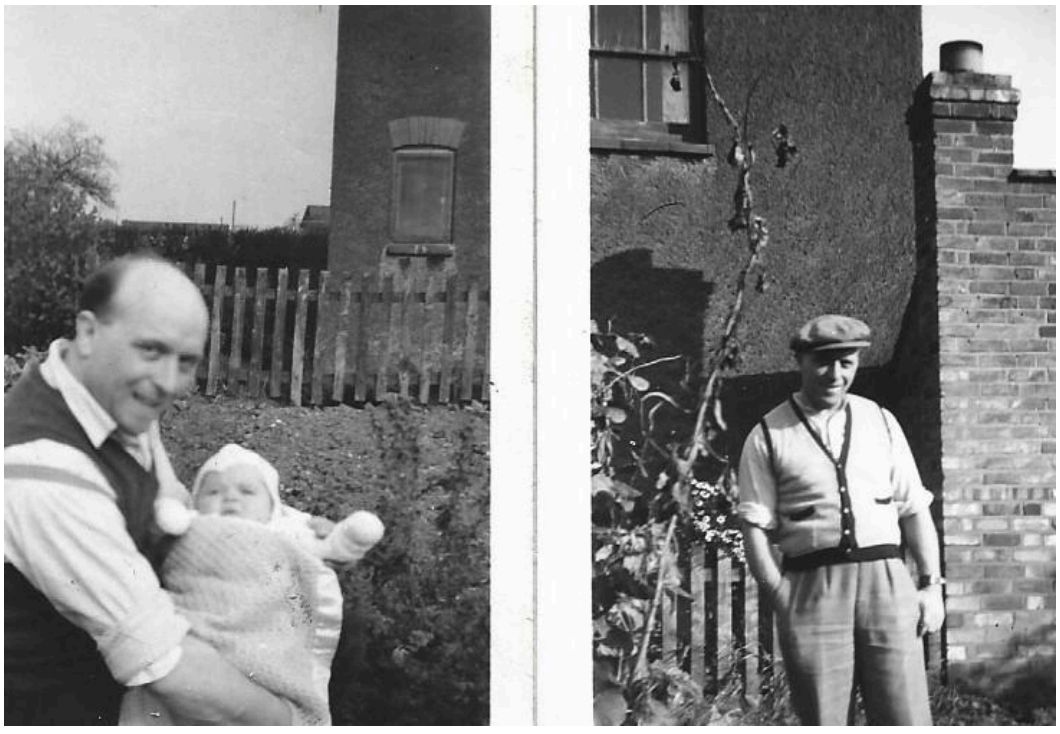

Article and Photo’s Donated by Andy Bradford

My parents only lived in Newbold for 5 years but never threw anything away, so you never know. My aunt lived on Preston Drive, so I knew the village really well at one time".

I found this tiny picture of Newbold fete c1961. It's my gran Lil Turner, my mum Nesta Bradford, and the 2 girls are Alison and Barbara Marsh

This is my dad Levi Bradford at the back of the Red Lion pub that had been turned into a house in 1959.

And the baby is Andy Bradford who has let us have these photos.
