SOCIAL DANCE

Over 50 people attended the Social Dance on Saturday, 4th June at the Community School.

In a 'party' atmosphere, the floor was filled with enthusiastic (if not always talented) dancers.

Old Time, Modern, Latin and Sequence dances allowed our fast improving dancers to "strut their stuff", and two Rock and Roll sections were well received.

A "Forties Spot", to commemorate D-Day, with music from Glenn Miller, saw the floor crowded. The evening ended to "White Cliffs of Dover" and "We'll Meet Again" with everyone singing their hearts out.

It's great to see "proper dancing" thriving in our village.

Don't worry if you missed it. We're doing it again on FRIDAY, 9th September 8 - 11 p.m. during "NEWBOLD '94"

N.V Cricket Club Balloon Race

Rachel is being presented with £300 as first prize as her balloon travelled the furthest distance in the allotted time. Hea balloon was returned by Simon Schneider of Plettenburg, Germany, who was sent £50 (125DM) as a reward for returning the balloon.Richard as the seller of the winning balloon also received £50.

VERDON IN BLOOM

HELP PLEASE! We are in desperate need of more volunteers to help with watering along Main Street. It only takes between 60 - 90 minutes so even if you can only spare one evening throughout the whole of the Summer, please telephone me on 828039. Thank You Paul French

CANDID VIEWS

In response to 'Candid Camera' the dog tracker. I was born in the village and lived here all my life. I own a dog and I am proud of how he behaves; garden trained but he still has the occasional accident. I am quite surprised the old villagers allow certain people who reside in the village to propose and do what they think is right without asking for village opinion. The dog man is hiding behind your cloak if you accept letters as strong and damaging as it was meant to be. The playing field, when it was turfed, was damaged by the 'high society' of the village who thought it was a 'golf club'!. I did not see 'Ed's Spot' putting names to print so the village knew who was to blame for the damage. If you accept anonymous letters to print, your team is no better than 'The Dog Tracker', who lights a fire then hides.
My last comment is, "Come on Dog Tracker stand up and be counted, or are you afraid you may have to move on if you are named."
P.S. If your team think 'anon" is the right way to ask you to print then I suggest you think again.

GREEN VIEWS

Dear Sirs
Why all the hypocrisy by certain residents of Gilberts Drive and Mallory Close? They do not want children playing on "the Green", and continually make their feelings known to the children. They site the fact that a bye-law prohibits the playing of ball games on this verdant patch. But are there not bye-laws concerning dogs fouling also? If the law is to be upheld, why discriminate?
There are many dog owners, they know who they are, who continue to abuse this particular area. For it is they, not their dogs, who are at fault in allowing dog excrement to be left. These owners seem quite happy to let their pets ruin this and other green areas in the village.
The youngsters have attempted many times to play away from the "Green", going to the recreation grounds on Dragon Lane and Alan Way. They have found, along with dog mess, broken glass and litter, that they have often been intimidated by older youths, male and female. Bicycles have been damaged, urinated upon, and "borrowed" for periods, all in the name of fun. The younger children have been verbally abused had stones thrown at them, and, if they can avoid their footballs being stolen, is it little wonder they prefer to play nearer to home.
For those residents who worry about the view, and their properties, given the recent spate of burglaries, think on. Burglars are less likely to invade their homes with a number of sharp-eyed children playing in the vicinity. Since the caring dog owners have not yet taught their pets to note down registration numbers, or report suspicious strangers, why are the residents being discriminatory. The dogs and owners can abuse the bye-law yet children are expected to behave differently, and are now suffering, verbal abuse from adults.
Either the parish bye-laws need changing or the residents should direct their venom in other directions. The children can do little relative damage by playing on this piece of grass, certainly not as much as the dogs who can bequeath us toxocana canis So remember you small minded complainers, the government want our children to be healthy, and to engage in more sporting activities. It is they who are the future, not the canine health hazards.

The Editor Verdon Views
Dear Sir,
I wrote the following letter to our Parish Council. I wonder if any other readers feel that we should be more informed about the Parish Council business.

Subject: Open Government

Dear Sir,
I suspect that for the majority of villagers, the meetings and the business of the Parish Council are invisible. Are minutes of meetings published? If so, where and when are they available for public viewing?
We have a village newspaper - The Verdon Views - which is distributed free of charge throughout the village. I am not involved with the Verdon Views (except as a press ganged typist) but surely it would be useful to publish a report of meetings in this newspaper so that the community could be more aware of the Parish Council business.
The cost, if any, would surely be well spent as it would encourage a more active interest in the Parish Council.
T C Horsley

The Editor,
Verdon Views,
Subject: Personal View of the June Parish Council Meeting

Dear Sir,
Last night, I attended a Parish Council meeting for the first time. I'm led to believe that it was heavily attended - about 30 people, including the council.
My thoughts on the meeting are as follow:

Open Government

My letter to the Council suggesting that the business of the Parish Council should be published in the Verdon Views was read.
The discussion ran thus:
"Can the Clerk confirm that the minutes are in the library?" to which the Clerk replied that the minutes are deposited at the library each month.
"We used to do this" - from Sue Spence I think.
End of discussion.
Is this really good enough? The library is open 15 hours each week with the minutes tucked away at the rear of the library with planning applications and the electoral roll. They cannot be borrowed or copied. They must be read in the library.
The Parish Council spend about £30,000 per year of our money. Much of their business affects the whole community. Surely more public awareness and discussion would help the Parish Council in their decisions.
I travel quite widely throughout the Midlands, North East and South Wales and often read the local community newspapers. Most carry Parish Council reports. Why not Newbold Verdon?

Proposed Ban of Dogs in Recreation Areas

Later in the meeting, the Parish Council proposal to ban dogs from recreational areas was debated. Due to the high level of objections received, the legal difficulties and the high cost of implementing such a scheme it was replaced by a proposal for an 18 month trial Poop Scoop Scheme. The vote for this trial was carried with 5 for the proposal and 2 abstentions.
Why anyone should abstain in such a vote I can't imagine.
During the discussion there was a suggestion that there should be a mailshot of every house with a leaflet describing responsible ownership of dogs and how the Poop Scoop scheme would work. Why not publish this in the Verdon Views or perform the mailshot in conjunction with the Verdon Views. The paper is delivered to every house - a leaflet could be inserted surely?

Neighbourhood Watch

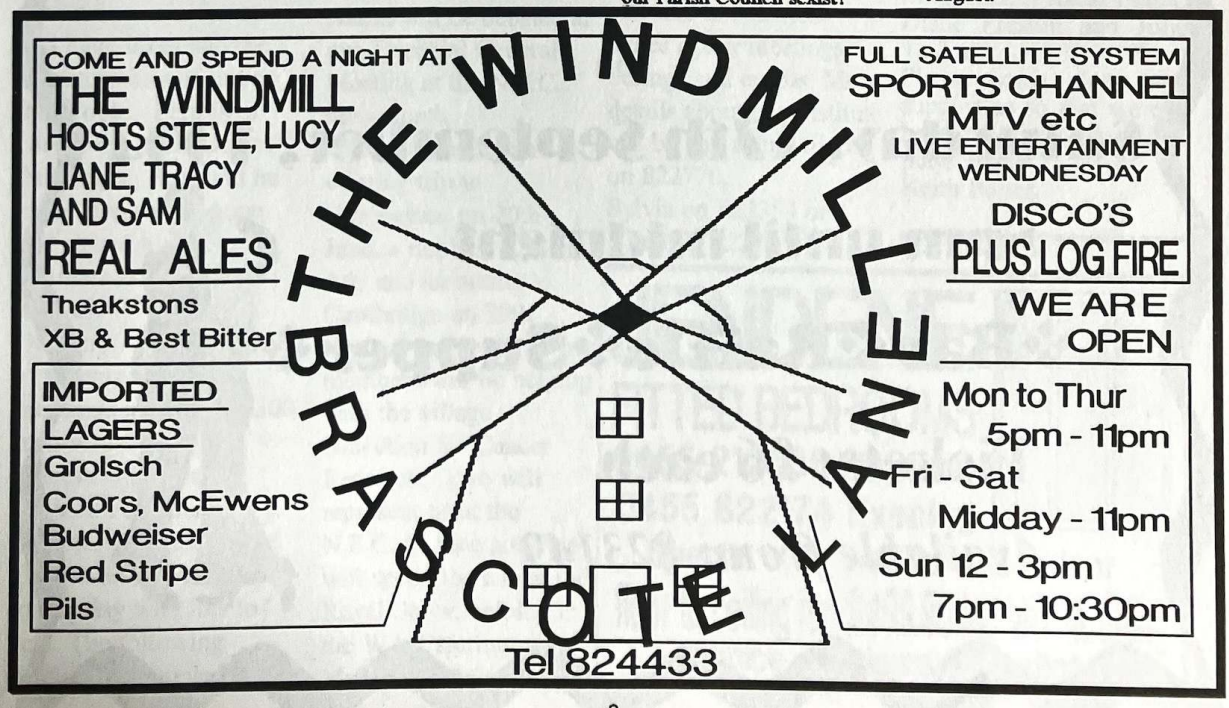

It appears that last month the Parish Council agreed to contribute towards the cost of erecting signs for any village Neighbourhood Watch Schemes. Well done! - Publish it and be praised!

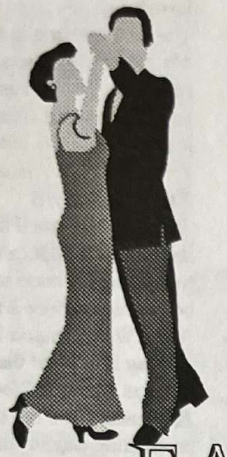

Final Thoughts - for the moment anyway.

Is it always the Female councillors who prepare and serve the coffee & biscuits? Is our Parish Council sexist?
I really don't wish to appear critical of the Council - I respect the functions you perform. But communicate with us actively not passively from the rear of the library and the PC notice boards.
The next meeting is on Monday 4th July at the Alans Way Pavilion. Any interested parishioners can attend and at least get coffee & biscuits.
T C Horsley, 8 Alans Way

PARISH NEWS

The Parish Council have decided to introduce a 18 month trial Poop & Scoop scheme, to be monitored once a month, on Alans Way, Dragon Lane playing fields and the open space at Mallory Close.
At present there are also bylaws prohibiting dog fouling on pavements, notices are displayed on lamppost and telegraph poles explaining this byelaw.
Parish Council meetings are held at 7.30pm in Alans Way playing fields pavilion on the first Monday of the month, except on Bank Holidays when it moves to the following Monday. Also the minutes can be found in the library for Parishioners to read.
A representative to give ideas on traffic calming measures in the village will be present at our July meeting.
There will be no meeting in August.

W.I. NEWS

We were please to welcome several visitors to our April meeting when Mrs Anne Warner gave a talk on Peru, a spectacular country. It was her holiday of a lifetime, three and a half weeks spent in search of the lost city of the Incas. Her slides gave us an insight into this vast country, the deserts and barren land, the mountains, rain forests and huge lakes and the primitive way of life of the people. Peru is of course the birthplace of Paddington Bear and he came along with Anne and shared his marmalade sandwiches with us.

On 22nd April, a number of us plus a few husbands joined over 300 members from Leicestershire and Rutland Federation on a day out to the Harrogate Flower Show. It was a lovely day with lots to see. The following week, twenty seven ladies left Newbold by coach to visit the Royal Doulton pottery and Shugborough Hall, the home of Lord Lichfield. The Hall has an interesting history and the guided tour was most enjoyable.

At our May meeting, Mrs Tricia Sykes came to explain to us details of the three resolutions on Organ Donation, Legal Aid and Pornography, which will be debated at our Triennial General Meeting at the N.E.C. next month.

We are planning an evening trip to Uppingham on 20th June, a ramble on 11th July and an outing to Cambridge on 29th September. Some of our members will be helping with the village collection for Cancer Research. Two will represent us at the N.E.C. in June and five will spend the day at the Royal Show, helping in the W.I. Catering Marquee in July.

On 13th June, the speaker at our meeting will be Mr J. Parr: "Gardening with Container Plants". 11th July will be our ramble. 8th August: Mrs Kendrick "Astrology - Star Quality"
12th September: Betty Harlow - "The Art of Egg Decorating - Faberge Style".

Our membership is increasing but we would still like to see more ladies at our meetings, outings and events. More details about our Institute can be had from Hildred on 822770, Sylvia on 823354 or Hazel on 822766.

SCHOOL NEWS

Rainbows are the youngest section of the Guide Association. We cater for girls aged 5-7 years (pre-Brownies). We meet at the school on Thursday evenings to enjoy a variety of games, crafts etc.
At Easter we had a fun-day at the Methodist Church where 102 Rainbows from 7 villages joined together for games, crafts, cooking, dancing and a fun castle. They all had their faces painted to fit the theme of "A Rainbow Circus". The unit is limited to 18 girls and places are offered to people on the waiting list - (names taken from 3 years old). Anyone interested can contact one of the Guiders for more details. Maureen Dixon (822820), Ann Jones

GARDEN SPOT

The structural evergreens which hold your garden together in winter now take a back seat as the flowering plants come into their own. You are, I hope, reading this whilst lounging in a deck-chair sipping an ice-cold drink, with the bees and butterflies flitting about, accompanied by the chirruping sparrows. Ah bliss, but as it is more likely to be raining I will just give you a few ideas to work on whether you are inside or out. Now the flowers are at their peak it always seems a shame to see the colour fade after only a few weeks. All annuals can be prolonged by dead heading , but this is not always possible with the perennials. So make a note in your diary of when the show starts to fade and by looking at other gardens or nurseries you can see which plants can be added to your plot to keep an area in colour. You may be able to do just a little bit of juggling with what you already have, plan to split tightly bunched group (make a note of what and where) to spread out the show. Or swap a plant or two with a friend.

Smaller gardens require a lot of thought as space is at a premium, you may have to be ruthless and dig out poor doers to replace with younger or better bred plants. Colour is so important as well, a small plot will look bigger if the cool tones of the blue and purple range are used. This is because cool colours recede to the eye. Hot colours leap forward seeming to take up more space. Remember that container plants can be planted at any time as long as you are willing and able to keep them well watered in the dryer months, a short rain shower is not enough. This though , does enable you to fill gaps in late summer with a job in autumn. Don't be put off by folk who say never buy a plant in flower, before you buy is the best time to see how well a particular plant will flower as some of the same kind do better than others. And look for Autumn leaf colour as well as showy seed heads such as some of the summer flowering clematis, Nigella (love in a mist) and poppies (especially the opium poppy). The usual Autumn flowering plant, the Aster group of Michaelmas daisies has been much improved with dwarf plants and better resistance to mildew. So plenty of summer yet to come! Happy gardening!!

METHODIST NEWS

It was with sadness that we heard recently that Gordan Chisnall, our minister, is to leave the Circuit to join the Wellingborough Circuit after dramatic moves at district level. He has made many friends during his years in our area, and we will all miss him greatly. His place as Superintendent will be taken by Peter Hancock, and joining our Circuit with pastoral responsibility for the three Churches which made up Gordan`s group will be Helen Brown, a deaconess with 10 years` experience as full time lay worker. We all wish you both - Gordan and Heather - well in your new Churches. We'll miss you guys!

Some other Church news.....

Last Sunday, 5th June, the Youth Club took the evening service, with the help of Cyril and friends! This was a most stimulating and enjoyable service, and those who attended could not have failed to be moved. Well done!!

NEWBOLD ON FIRE

In spite of a terrible weekend's weather, causing the cancellation of rounders and outdoor activities, Sunday 22nd May made up for everything!

The organisers were taken by surprise by the number of people turning up through the rain to join together for the "Service with a difference".

They must have been gratified to see that all their hard work was so appreciated. A lovely tea was provided, and there was a good variety of entertainment, as well as some thought provoking testimonies.

Congratulations to the Council of Churches.

N V U/12s Report

Congratulations to the Young Eagles for becoming the first Newbold side to win the youth league. The boys have played and worked very hard for their success, also the boys attitude during the season has been first class. Well Done!

We also had a smashing time at Filbert Street where the boys received their medals for winning the league. considering where the boys were, at the bottom, last year before I took over, the boys since then have only lost one game out of thirty four games in the league. Again this is down to the boys attitude and willing to win.

Thank you to the parents for their help during the season with their transport. Without it we could not have won the league, and not forgetting Assistant Manager Malcolm Statham, Merv Talbott and Mel Freestone for helping out during the season. Big thanks to you all.

Well done to the Young Eagles I am so proud of you all.

NEWS FROM CHADWICK CLOSE

Many residents of Chadwick Close have had a busy start to summer. There was a trip to Windsor organised by Peckleton Church in May. We spent a lovely Summer's day in Clacton in April organised by Mrs. Gunn from Desford. We have trips to Selby and Colwyn Bay coming up and a day in Bournemouth in August. On the 15th June we are going to the Cotswolds on a trip organised by the Working Men`s Club, followed by a supper at the Club.

We would all like to send our best wishes to Roseena Cooke, who is still recovering in the Leicester Infirmary.
