time 'Naneby Park'. The right of way from [illegible] farmyard directly behind Naneby Hall Farm. Could this be the ancient village street? A quarry has now been opened and is now being worked with much activity.

Nov/73. Names of people who lived in the vicity of Newbold five hundred years ago. These notes were taken from Leicestershire Medieval Pedigree by George Farnham.
A.D.1416. Matilda Barnard, formerly wife of John Barnard, granted to Alured Lathbury and Alxice his wife their heirs and assigns for ever a cottage and croft in Cateby between the tenement of the said Alured on the north and a vacant spot on the south. Witnesses Giles Meignill of Cateby. Robert Humfrey. John Walsheman. Willia Payne. Henry Crafte of Naneby and others. dated at Cateby on St. Peter ad vincula 4 Henry V. From another source we know that Robert Crafte paid a sum of XVIIjd in 1327 in the Lay Subsidy Roll of that year.
A.D.1419. Matilda Barnard of Cateby, daughter of and heir of Robert de Cateby, in oure widowhood granted to Reginald Lathbury, his heirs and assigns for ever, all the lands, tenements, meadows etc, in Cateby which descended to her by hereditary right after the death of Robert her father.
Witnesses. Alured Lathburym Knight. John Yns, John Marchall of Upton, John Cateby, John Shepey of Osberston, Richard Botiller of Cateby and John Walsheman of Cateby. dated at Cateby 6 Aug. 7 Henry V.
A.D.1425 Reginald Lathbury es uire granted to John Marchall of Upton, William Marchall of Stretton and John Palmer of Stoke, their heirs and ssigns all his right in the manor of Cateby and in all his lands and tenements in Cateby Co. Leicester and in Okthorp Co.nr Derby.
Witnesses. Alan Moton, William Purefry of Drayton, Robert Langham of Gopshyl, Robert temple of Wellesborough, John Shepey of Osberston. dated at Cateby 10th Feb. 3 Henry VI. Note. The Motons were from Peckleton. One of them was kinghted for bravery on the battlefield at the Battle of Crect Aug. 26th 1346.
A.D. 1425. John Ince of Bosworth, John Naneby parson of the church of Newbold and John Derby of London, granted to John Cateby of Newbold a toft in Cateby and a plot of land called the Bakhows plot and 6 acres of arable land in Cateby which they lately had of the gift of the siad John Cateby.
Witnesses. Robert Moton, Knight, John Marchall of Upton, Robert Temple of Wellesburgh John Walsheman of Cateby and others. dated at Cateby on St. Michael the Archangel ,4 Henry VI.

Dec./73. A.D.1429 John Wallsheman of Cateby, the elder granted to Adam Warde, Robert Toway and John Gerveys the elder, their heirs and assigns, all his lands in Cateby Witnesses. William Sutton. John Shepey, Thomas Dolman of Osbaston, Thomas Colwry of Brascote and John Hevet of Naneby. Dated at Cateby on St. Luke the Evangelist 8 Henry VI.
A.D.1450. Adam Warde of Shulton granted to Elizabeth Moton, wife of Robert Moton, Knight, and Thomas Lathbury, all his lands ~~kennenk~~ tenements etc. in Cateby which he lately had of a gift of John Wallasham of Cateby, together with John Gerveys and Robert Towere.
Witnesses. Wm. Sutton of Osbaston, John Boteler of Bosworth, Wm Benet of Peckleton and others. dated at Cateby 4th April 28 Henry VI.

Jan./74. From: 'Farnham's Medieval Notes' Cotesbach. Fine Hilary 31 Edward III 1357. Between John de Crophill, chivalier, and Margary his wife, pliantiffs, and Ralph Crophill, parson, of Cotyngham church, defendant of the manors of Newbold and Cotesbach and the leet of Skeffington, co. Leicester, and the advowson of the priory of Grace-dieu and the advowsons of the churches of Skeffington and Cotesbach and a fourth part of the chu ch of Bosworthin the same county. The manors, etc are declared to be the right of Ralph, and for this acknowledgement Ralph granted the manors etc. to John and Margery and their lawful joint issue for ever.
De Banco Roll 494 Easter. 48 Eedward III John de Crophill, chivalier, versus John Fylding in a plea of fishing in the seperate fishing of John de Crophill at Cotesbach and taking away fish to the value of 60 shillings.
Inquisition post mortem Agnes, wife of John Merbury File 75/32, Taken at Leicester 29th April 14 Henry VI 1436, The jury say that a fine was levied in thred weeks of Easter 5 Henry VI at Westminster, between Geofrrey Harley, Richard Hulle, and John Moyton, plaintiffs, and John Nerburt and Agness his wife, defendants, of the manors ofCotesbach and Newbold VerdonBranston and Hemington, and the view of frank pledge at Skeffington. John Merbury and Agnes his wife acknowledged the manors of Cotesbach and Newbold to be the right of the said Geoffrey, Richard and John Moyton, andthe manors of Hemyngton and Branston to be the right of the said Geofrrey, who for this acknowledgment granted the said manors to John Merbury and Agnes and their joint issue, and if John and Agnes die without issue, then the manors will remain to the right heirs of Agnes forever. Agnes died on 3rd. Feb last, Walter