A School stood on the site where the War Memorial now stands, and where, there were what was known as "Penny Readings".
An intellectual Feast on read aloud to the uneducated people of the Parish.
It was at this School that the Miss Wildmans, who lived at Church Farm with their parents, brought a bale each of Calico & Red Flannel, to sell to the Parish Poor @ 1d per yd, for the making of under-garments.

Stated by Mrs Frank Wildman (1950)
Mike Prestons Grandmother

1950 SOCIAL HISTORY - PIECE OF PAPER : MRS. FRANK WILDMANS MEMORIES OF THE SCHOOL CHILDRENS AUGUST HOLIDAY & PRIZE-GIVING'S & THE ORIGINAL SCHOOL 1900-1910
Transcribed by M.K. Gilliver (Michael Prestons Aunt)