RK172

(e) The payment of contributions of members, qualified as aforesaid, of any registered Provident or Friendly Society, who, through illness or other cause, have become wholly or partly unable to pay such contributions as they fall due, out of their own resources;

(f) The assistance of any person under the age of 21 years on entering upon, or to enable them to prepare for, a trade, occupation, or service, by outfits, payment of fees for instruction, payment of travelling expenses, or otherwise, or by such other means for their advancement in life, or to enable them to earn their own living, as the Trustees think fit:

III. The supply, to poor persons, otherwise qualified as aforesaid, who from age, ill-health, accident or infirmity, are wholly or partly unable to maintain themselves by their own exertions, or who are in special distress or have suffered some unexpected loss or misfortune, of—

(a) Clothes, Linen, Bedding, Fuel, Tools, Food or other articles in kind;

(b) Temporary assistance in money, by way of loan or otherwise.

26. Supplemental Provisions.—The application of the income of the Charity under the last preceding clause hereof shall be subject to the following provisions:—

(1) The said income shall in no case be applied in aid of any rates for the relief of the poor or other purposes, or so that any individual or institution may become entitled to a periodical or recurrent benefit therefrom.

(2) Assistance shall only be granted after full investigation of the character and circumstances of the proposed beneficiaries, and inquiry whether they have shown reasonable providence, and whether and to what extent they may reasonably expect assistance from relations or others.

(3) In applying the said income the Trustees may avail themselves of the agency of any Charity Organisation Society or other like agency.

(4) The appropriation of the benefits of the Charity shall be made by the Trustees from time to time at meetings of their body, and not separately by an individual Trustee or Trustees. Provided that the Trustees may at any meeting appoint two or more members of their body to be a Committee for dealing with any case of emergency, but all acts and proceedings of Committees shall be reported in due course to the Trustees.

General Provisions.

27. Trustees not to be personally interested.—No Trustee shall take or hold any interest in any property belonging to the Charity otherwise than as a Trustee for the purposes thereof, and no Trustee shall receive any remuneration, or be interested in the supply of work or goods, at the cost of the Charity.

28. Questions under Scheme.—Any question as to the construction of this Scheme, or as to the regularity or the validity of any acts done or about to be done under this Scheme, shall be determined conclusively by the Charity Commissioners, upon such application made to them for the purpose as they think sufficient.
