RK 228 (1 of 3 pages)

THE DIARY OF JOHN MOXON

p54. FRIDAY 23RD ~~MARCH~~ FEBRUARY 1798.

"..... Thomas (Paid) the £1 1s Lime - 8s 3d Had of Tho(ma)s the bill £5 [90] "

note 90 ... Thomas is his (Joseph Moxons) nephew Thomas Moxon (1774-1821), second son of Thomas Moxon of Altrincham, then Littleover. This Thomas (the nephew) later traded in lime and coal from Vauxhall Wharf on the site of the Bath Gardens at West Bridge in the Parish of St. Nicholas, Leicester, where he bought up a large family, many whom became freemen of the city. He married Sarah Dson of Newbold Verdon in 1802 and resided at the Vauxhall public house in Bath Lane. He died of 'an apoplectic fit' according to the Leicester Journal in May, 1821."

p59 FRIDAY 23. MARCH 1798.

"..... To Mr Hoyland for John Owen. Revd. Mr. Lacey's insurance (19s - 6d) 1s - 6d [128] " n128 "... The Revd. Richard Lacy rector of Newbold Verdon 1794 - 1803, then of Abbey Dore, Herefordshire. Moxon is delivering the insurance payment via Thos. Hoyland (1758 - 1805), the Bosworth ~~butcher~~, on his rounds.

RK 228 (3.F 3)

P65 SATURDAY 2ND JUNE 1798

Note 168. Thomas Beck (c 1761–1842), Boswarth stone mason, bricklayer and builder, whom Moxon continually employed on repairs to the c 1600 school building, much dilapidated in the 18C. His payment (£1.11s) is noted in the Boswarth School Account Book, (L.R.O. DE 633/54) as 'slaterer and plasterers Bill'. Beck later moved to Newbold Verdon. (Ref?) (aged 27 years old at this time).

P113 THURSDAY 4TH JULY 1799

"— — of Miss Trotter armorial bearing. £1.1s" [445]

Note 445 "Anne and Elizabeth Trotter, spinsters, were daughters of the Revd. Nathaniel Trotter, rector of Thurlaston 1761–1797. In 1797 they had presented the Revd. Thomas Slade (c 1726–1824), former Usher at Boswarth school to the living of Thurlaston (Nichols, IV p. 998). The Trotter sisters later lived at Newbold Verdon. (Ref?)