RK339 Conservation Area

1885. Map of Eastern part of Conservation Area

1885. Map of Western part of Conservation Area

RK339 Conservation Area

Late 19th C Rear of Church Farm, gathering of the Wildman Family

William Barr (post-master) cottage opposite War Memorial (1920?)

Penny Bazaar held on Church Row, late 19th Century

RK339 Conservation Area

Looking north up Main Street toward Mill Lane (late 19th C)

Looking north up Main Street toward Mill Lane (late 19th C)

Late 19th C Main Street, Marston West Smithy on right (now Methodist car park)

Main Street junction with Brascote Lane circa 1920s

War Memorial erected after the 2nd WW.

RK339 Conservation Area

Church End 1960s

Church End adjacent to Dragon Lane 1960s

Main Street 1960s opposite War Memorial

Postcard views of Main Street 1960s

RK339 Conservation Area

1-9 Church Row (next to St James) 2017

Corner of Main Street opposite Cob Cottage 2017

Brascote lane and Main Street junction (Late 20th Century?)

Once three cottages standing opposite the War Memorial 2017

Cob Cottage next to what had been a butchers (20th C) and public house – The Bricklayers Arms/The Engine – late 19th century