FOOTBALLERS FINED

Newbold Verdon Youths Play In Front Of Church

When ten Newbold Verdon youths were summoned at Bosworth Police Court to-day for playing football on the Highway, Police-constable Cooper said they had two sides and were playing in front of the church while a service was in progress.

The ball went into the graveyard and the players scrambled over the graves to fetch it.

Four of the youths appeared and pleaded guilty and said the road was private property.

The cases against these four were dismissed and the others were fined 5s. each.
