RK364 Aldyth Emmerson's Loose Press Cuttings Physical Archive
1981

Death of Nathaniel Beck, Brascote Lane Newbold Verdon, retired builder and church warden

10 LEICESTER MERCURY, TUESDAY, JULY 14, 1981

Mr N. Beck

Mr Nathaniel Beck of Brascote Lane, Newbold Verdon, has died at the Leicester Royal Infirmary at the age of 77.

Mr Beck was a retired builder, and was a churchwarden at St. James', Newbold Verdon for 16 years.

His hobbies included gardening and bowling, and he was a member of the Hinckley Sweet Pea Bowling Club.

Mr Beck leaves a wife and a son.

The funeral service took place at St. James' Church, Newbold Verdon, and was taken by the Rev Hall. The 23rd Psalm and the hymn "Thy Day Thou Gavest Lord" were sung. The ashes were scattered at Newbold Verdon Church.

The mourners were: Mrs V. Beck (wife), Mr K. M. Beck (son), Mrs K. M. Beck (daughter-in-law), Mr J. P. Beck, Mr J. C. Beck (grandsons), Mrs M. Warner (sister), Mr W. Beck (brother), Mrs A. Thorpe, Mr and Mrs N. Warner, Mr and Mrs R. Emmerson, Mr and Mrs A. Pitchfork, Mrs R. Hurst, Mr and Mrs D. Hughes (nephews and nieces), Mrs M. Hughes (sister-in-law), Mr and Mrs S. Allton, Mr and Mrs H. Moore, Mr and Mrs A. Livermore (friends).

There were family flowers only. Donations to Multiple Sclerosis Society.

637138.

BECK – Nathaniel, of Brascote Lane, Newbold Verdon, passed peacefully away in hospital on the 12th July 1981 aged 77 years. Dearly loved husband of Vera, loving father of Keith and Gill, dearly loved grandpa of Jonathan and Julian. The funeral service took place today Friday 17th July at Newbold Verdon, Parish Church at 2.00 p.m. prior to cremation at Nuneaton. Further enquiries to J. McCartney and Son, Funeral Directors, 47 Coventry Road, Hinckley. Tel. 637138.

BUTTERS – Frederick James, of

Former church official dies

FORMER Newbold Verdon Parish churchwarden Mr. Nathaniel Beck has died, aged 77.

Mr. Beck of Brascote Lane, was churchwarden of St. James's Church for 16 years until work commitments forced him to give up his post in 1961.

Born in Market Bosworth, he completed a building apprenticeship before the Second World War, and set up his own building firm, N. Beck in 1946.