Two well-known Market Bosworth area people, Miss Gillian Rose Alcock, only daughter of Mr and Mrs N. T. Alcock, "Annesley", Carlton and Mr Keith M. Beck, only son of Mr and Mrs N. Beck, "The Shingles", Newbold Verdon, were married at St Andrew's, Carlton.

The bride, given away by her father, wore a model gown of wild silk, in white. The slender lines of the bodice and front skirt emphasised by the fullness of the back, which formed a pannier effect and ended in a flowing train. The neckline was embroidered with seed pearls and silver bugle beads. Her head-dress was a coronet of crystals and rhinestones supporting waist-length bouffant veils. She carried a bouquet of deep orange roses with stephanotis and lily of the valley.

A friend, Miss Sally Smith, was chief bridesmaid and the other attendants were Misses Pauline Wileman and Jennifer Alcock, cousins of the bride, with two small bridesmaids, Susan Wileman (bride's God-child) and Susan Harris (friend of the groom). The three senior bridesmaids wore short bell-shaped dresses of apricot poult with matching rose head-dresses and satin shoes. All three bridesmaids carried bouquets of all-white mixed flowers. The two smaller bridesmaids wore pale green ruched nylon dresses with matching head-dresses and carried posies of white lace with orange roses.

The service was conducted by Rev R. Gibbons, of Newbold Verdon.

Best man was Mr W. Quinney, friend of the groom, and acting as ushers were Messrs David Hughes (groom's cousin) and Paul Oakley (friend of the bride).

On leaving the church the bride and groom travelled in a 1911 Sunbeam car to the reception at the George Hotel, Hinckley, which was attended by over 100 guests.

Honeymoon destination is unknown, and the bride travelled in a pale blue lace dress with matching three-quarter length coat and white accessories.

Both bride and groom are past members of Market Bosworth Young Farmers' Club and the groom has a heating and sanitary engineering business at Newbold Verdon. The bride is a secretary at Timber Fireproofing Co Ltd, Market Bosworth.
